Re: United States v. Robert Dombroski, Crim. No. 19-650 (JMV)

Dear Judge Vazquez:

The Government writes, with the defendant's consent, to inform the Court that the parties do not believe any further action is necessary with respect to either forfeiture or restitution. The defendant has abandoned and waived any potential right to the property at issue in this case, primarily electronic equipment and other items unlawfully obtained through government contracts. ECF No. 57. The Government is not seeking any additional forfeiture or restitution.

Respectfully submitted,

PHILIP R. SELLINGER
United States Attorney
